Reception For Candidate

The Appomattox County Women for Howard Anderson for Senate Committee held a reception Thursday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. Webster Babcock in Appomattox.

Mrs. Virginia Moses Babcock is the daughter of the late Senator Charles T. Moses and Mrs. Moses. Mr. and Mrs. Anderson were in the receiving line along with committee members. The reception was attended by approximately 300 people and was declared a success.

Evening Party Honors Couple

Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Smith, of Boonsboro, were host and hostess for an evening party, Thursday, October 22, honoring Miss Mary Anna McDearmon and Mr. John Michael Lair whose marriage was an event of Saturday, October 23 at St. Ann's Episcopal Church, Appomattox. Mrs. J. W. McDearmon, of Appomattox, was a co-hostess for the event.

Autumn chrysanthemums were used throughout the home in colorful arrangements. Family members and friends of the honored couple were among the guests.

Wedding Brunch

Attendants in the wedding party of Miss Mary Anna McDearmon were honored on Sat., Oct. 23 with a "Brunch" at the home of Mrs. B. G. Anderson, Appomattox. Miss McDearmon's marriage to Mr. John Michael Lair was an event of the afternoon of October 23 at St. Ann's Episcopal Church.

The bridal theme was repeated throughout the Anderson home with arrangements of pink dahlias in the dining room and bridal dolls with appropriate flowers and greenery both in the dining room and living room where guests enjoyed a variety of dainty finger foods and hot coffee.

The bride-to-be was presented with a corsage of tiny, pink dahlias.

Brunch Honors Bride & Groom

A Sunday "Brunch" on October 17 was held at the home of Colonel Charles E. McLaughlin (ret) and Mrs. McLaughlin to honor Miss Mary Anna McDearmon and Mr. Michael John Lair. The Lair-McDearmon wedding was an event of Saturday, October 23 at St. Ann's Episcopal Church, Appomattox.

For the Sunday party, the dining table at the McLaughlins was decorated with fruits and vegetables, all combined to form the shape of an ocean going ship. Fall colors were repeated in appointments at the table and throughout the home in arrangements of flowers and foliage.

Miss McDearmon was presented with a "First Love" rose.

Besides the honored couple, guests included Mr. and Mrs. C. L. McDearmon, of Appomattox; Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Wallis, of Pamplin; other members of the immediate families and friends of the young couple.

Saturday Luncheon

Mrs. Robert Martin entertained with a recipe luncheon Saturday at Maude's Resturant honoring Miss Patricia Jean Covington.

The wedding of Miss Covington, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Covington of Pamplin and Mr. John Dickens, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Dickens, of Leesburg, will take place in November.

The table was centered with an arrangement of white stock and yellow chrysanthemums.

Among those attending were Mrs. Henry Covington, mother of the bride-elect, Mrs. Edgar Dickens, mother of the bridegroom, and college friends.

The hostess presented Patricia with a cookbook and a recipe box containing favorite recipes of those present.

Rehearsal Dinner

A rehearsal dinner was held Friday evening, October 22, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W.W. Wallis to honor Miss Mary Anna McDearmon and Mr. John Michael Lair, whose wedding was an event of Saturday, October 23, at St. Anne's Episcopal Church.

The dining table was centered with an autumn arrangement of white delphinium and yellow pom pom chrysanthemums.

Members of the bridal party; the parents of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. McDearmon and several out-of-town guests here for the wedding were among those present. Included were Mr. and Mrs. George Lair, of Detroit, Michigan; Dr. and Mrs. O. W. Butner of Florida and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Gerhartof Norfolk.

Shower Honors Bride-Elect

The first in a series of parties for Miss Patricia Jean Covington, bride-elect, was held Friday night when Mrs. Benny Massey and Mrs. Earl Carter, Jr. entertained with a miscellaneous shower at the Massey home in Pamplin.

The marriage of Miss Covington to John Dickens of Leesburg, will take place in November.

Fall flower arrangements throughout the rooms accented the bridal note.

Invited guests at the shower included Mrs. Henry Covington, mother of the bride; Mrs. Edgar Dickens, mother of the bridegroom; friends and relatives.

The Raider defense was spearheaded by Lee Conner, Phillip Goode, Randy Foster, Steve Lawson, Billy Guthrie and Dennis Wilkerson. Conner had nine tackles and Goode eight as both had quite a few assist also. Following them were Randy Foster with six, and Lawson and Wilkerson with five each and three assist. Guthrie knocked down three passes on rushing attempts and had four tackles before leaving the game with an injury.

Sam Baker, James Poe and Stan Austin led the WC defense attack as they kept the Raiders completely bottled up in the second half.

The Raiders face Altavista Friday night in their final game as homecoming takes place at Appomattox.

Carter, Jan Stanley and Bob Weatherly. The title holder was crowned by Roy Massie, president of the Appomattox County Youth Association, with Mrs. William Chenault in charge of contest and details of the crowning ceremonies.

T-Rebs Capture Indians 46-0

by Rabbit Cawthorne

In the first quarter of the T-Reb game Saturday night against 12-year old Indians from Concord, the T-Rebs went after the Indians with a lot of energy.

Final score 46-0 and a lot of plays by the local boys.

Richard Blazer picked up a blocked-punt in the 1st quarter and went in from 30 yards out for the TD. Tommy Bryant ran the ball for the extra point. Also in the 1st quarter Harold Martin recovered a fumble to set up the next TD, Bob Weatherly ran the ball out from 24 yards for the TD, Then Gordon Ford recovered a fumble to set up a TD and Dillard Reynolds ran the ball from 3 yards out for the third TD and with the extra point try no good the score was 20-0.

In the 2nd quarter Dillard Reynolds passed to Phillip Jamerson for the TD, kick-try was no good.

In the 3rd Tommy Bryant ran a two-yard run for a TD and the score then stood 32-0. R.B. Carter made the run good for an extra two points.

In the 4th quarter Tommy Bryant made a four-yard run for a TD. Extra point was no good. Also in the 4th, Dillard Reynolds passed to Tim Doss 23 yards out for a TD. The extra point try was no good. Both defense and offense played outstanding ball.

T-Rebs are now in the playoffs with time and place to be announced. Their season tally 5-1-1.

Midgets Win Over Indians

by Rabbit Cawthorne

The Midgets have a 5-1-1 record and those little cheerleaders for the "Midgets" and the other teams in Youth League football deserve a lot of credit.

Saturday night, the "Midgets" played a good tight game against Concord Indians for a 14-8 victory.

Freddie Mitchell got things going in the 2nd quarter with a 22-yard run for the TD. The extra point was run by Walter Moseley and Appo boys were 8-0 at half-time.

In the third quarter, no scoring activity, but in the 4th quarter Ernie Chenault scored the TD from six yards out. Johnny Hotheph ran the extra point.

Then Jerome Elliott, of the Phillips, ran the ball 55 yards. That was a Nice Run!! Greg Saunders made the extra point on a good run to settle the evening 16-8.

Both teams played good offense and defense.

The "Midgets" are in the play-offs this week end. Watch for more announcements.

Altavista Nips Baby Raiders 8-7

In the first quarter Dennis Jamerson passed to Charles Clark for the first and only TD by the Jr. Raiders. Dennis Jamerson kicked the ball for the extra point.

Altavista, in the third quarter reaped six points in a once-in-a - lifetime play. Raiders on their own five yard line fumbled the ball, which bounced into the end zone and was recovered by Altavista for six points and the TD. A run try was successful and score stood at 8-7.

Raiders for the season stand at 4-2-0, as of Thursday game with the outcome of Tuesday's game to determine final standings.

For defense standouts there were Mike Quinn, Mike Ramsey, and David Marshall.

Mites-Indians Clash For 6-0 Mite Victory

by Rabbit Cawthorne

Bradley Babcock, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Babcock, Appomattox and a coach at Madison High School, helped Saturday night as "Mites" "Midgets" and "T-Rebs" played "Indians from Concord.

This is the first year that the Indians have had a recreation program, and they deserve a lot of credit, both coaches and boys for what they're doing.

Eight-year old "Mites" had quite an evening. Their Saturday victory gives them a berth in the playoff with a 5-2-1 record.

In the first quarter Jeff Moore made two long runs but fumbles kept the Mites off the scoreboard. In the fourth quarter it was Jeff Moore, again, in a 15 yard run that made the TD for the "Mites" and the only score of the evening. The extra point a run try, was no good.

Steve Cobb recovered an Indians' fumble in the closing minutes of the game to stop the Indians' drive.

For Indians defense standouts included Mac Coleman, Robert Harding, Dennis Stratton and Buck Scott.

"Mites" had a very good evening, say their coaches and each boy gets credit for real effort.
